

Employment

Policy

MNA proclaims the Gospel of Jesus Christ as its first priority in all aspects of its activities. As such, we employ staff that agree with our ethos, and who are actively living out their Christian faith and are capable of sharing the Gospel.

MNA expects staff to have the necessary attitudes, qualifications and experience allowing them to strive for professional excellence.

MNA employs staff who love children, fellowship with adults and are passionate about Christian mission.

Procedure – Employment Process

1. The MNA Chairperson will approve advertising for new employment opportunities.
2. All positions will be advertised.
3. For permanent part-time and full time positions, candidates will conduct an initial interview with the MNA Chairperson or their delegate and a second interview with a Subcommittee Chair as determined by the MNA Chairperson.
4. Successful applicants are required to undergo employment screening for working with children.
5. Successful applicants are required to support the MNA ethos.
